

Property Management Placements By Property Management Professionals With Recruitment Expertise

The EMLIN GROUP, Ltd. (215-654-9299) uniquely combines the experience of Property Management professionals who also possess recruitment expertise. The EMLIN GROUP is backed by nearly a decade of experience with recruitment experts who keenly understand the industry because of their many years' experience as professionals in the multi-family and commercial property management arena.

Identifying the best candidates for the positions they are asked to fill, requires an understanding of the property management industry. They know what combination of experience and chemistry will be best suited for positions at the site and corporate level and are able to successfully place people in positions nationally as a result of this expertise.

It makes sense to have Recruitment Experts who are all Property Management Professionals handle the recruitment needs of companies seeking site, corporate, and executive level property management employees. Understanding the responsibilities associated with the positions that need to be filled because the group consists entirely of Property Management Professionals who are also Recruitment Experts, makes a world of difference in bringing the right people to the table and not wasting the time of employers who wish to interview only the best and most qualified candidates.

Valerie Glassford was recently appointed Vice President of Recruitment for The EMLIN GROUP, Ltd., and Valerie's twenty years of experience includes:

- Regional Property Management Expertise
- Regional Marketing of Multi-Family & Commercial Properties
- PA Licensed Real Estate Broker
- Resort Sales
